- 5) Stay calm and neutral, but comfort the child if necessary.

REPORT

- 1) Speak to a DSL (Kate Bryant) or DDSL (Ellen Collins)

CHECK

Always follow up – check what the DSL has decided to do about your report. If you are unhappy that it has been dealt with properly, it is your responsibility to report to SSCP.

ALL safeguarding disclosures should be treated with respect and confidentiality. The DSL / DDSL will decide whether it is necessary to share some or all of the information with staff working directly with the child, on a case by case basis.
